Lifestyle Options

Our lifestyle options include our Assisted Living Community, Memory Care Household and Health Center. Each level of care includes an apartment or room, community amenities, services and a person-centered care program individualized for each resident.

Our lifestyle options may only be needed temporarily such as post surgery for rehabilitation. Or, choosing assisted living will support residents as their health care and wellness needs evolve.

Assisted Living provides support with activities of daily living such as dressing, bathing, medication reminders, and transportation, along with access to daily meals, activities, housekeeping and laundry services.

Memory Care Household is a comfortable, secured residence designed for people living with Alzheimer's disease and other forms of dementia. Both personal care and skilled nursing services are available in the Memory Care Household.

After surgery or a hospital stay, a person may need to recover and regain strength and functionality. Whether they are here for a short visit or an extended stay, the Health Center at Adams Woodcrest is a valuable resource for skilled nursing and rehabilitation services.

Finances and Value

Since 1989, Adams Woodcrest has served older adults seeking to live a maintenance-free, active lifestyle. We take the chores out of life so each resident can do what they want to do each day. As each resident’s health and wellness needs change – there are lifestyle options available at the Adams Woodcrest campus to serve them including assisted living, memory care, and a health center.

Finances

As a senior living community, we form a contract with our residents. For an upfront fee plus monthly rent, Adams Woodcrest provides housing and a variety of services to each resident. These fees vary based on the unit size, unit type, and location on the campus. As a resident’s health and wellness needs change, we can extend to them, at no additional cost for a period of time, access to assisted living, memory care, and the health center on the Adams Woodcrest campus.

A More Predictable Future

Adams Woodcrest Senior Living enables residents to age among familiar surroundings rather than relocate out of town as needs change. Residents can better plan for their future housing and care expenses, while Living Every Moment today. Add up all the costs (both your expenses and your time) you have today, and how they’ve increased – home costs, taxes, maintenance, insurance, utilities, and more. Not only what you pay, but the time and work that goes into a home. Many people find Adams Woodcrest to offer a better value. Our residents typically fund a move to assisted living at Adams Woodcrest through the sale of their home, personal savings, investment income and other financial tools.
